Introduction

These are exciting times at MOJ Digital and Technology. We have a clear vision - to develop a digitally-enabled justice system that works more simply for users - and we're looking for talented people to help us achieve it. We're making things better by building adaptable, effective services and making systems that are simple to use for staff and citizens. It can be challenging but it's also important and rewarding.

As well as doing great work, we're creating a place that's great to do work in. We offer tip-top kit, brilliant training opportunities and support from expert colleagues. On top of that, you'll find flexible working, an inclusive culture and a place where your opinion is valued.

The team

Knowledge and information are the lifeblood of Ministry of Justice (MoJ). They can transform the way we deliver public services as well as the relationship between government and public. It is important for the Department to show that we are capable of handling information carefully as well as making it readily available and widely accessible wherever we can and should. Managing information well can have a direct impact on our ability to deliver core services to our customers.

MoJ Digital & Technology Directorate hosts MoJ's Data Protection Officer and Data Privacy Team, responsible for helping the department to comply with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and Data Protection Act 2018 (DPA). We provide expert advice and guidance on the use of personal data in a manner which is compatible with the law. Our core function is to promote compliance with data protection legislation across policies, projects, processes and services involving personal data, through provision of bespoke advice, training and guidance.

Reporting directly to a Data Privacy Strategic Lead (Band A) and working as part of a small team, you will have a leading role in contributing to improvements to the way the Department manages its personal data. As a data protection subject matter expert, you will have responsibility for promoting adherence to, and providing guidance across, a broad spectrum of business areas on information legislation; you may also oversee the management of significant incidents involving personal data.

The role

The role-holder will be expected to:

- Act as principle point of contact for a number of the MoJ's component agencies/ organisations and central work-streams; providing expert advice and guidance on the application of data protection legislation in their business area and particular circumstances. You will have to deal with complex issues and will need to be able to produce accurate advice on compliance matters quickly, to a high standard.

- Contribute to commissions from within the business and cross-government, to help ensure the proper application of data protection law and reliance on appropriate legal gateways to data processing mindful of the potential risks and outcomes associated with such.
- Review and advise upon Data Protection Impact Assessments (DPIAs) and data sharing agreements / memorandums produced to mitigate privacy risks and advise on potential solutions and changes to processes / policies proposed to aid both their legal and practical application.
- Build and maintain excellent working relationships with key colleagues in the Ministry, its executive agencies as well as with other government departments.
- The role also provides the opportunity to draft a range of written communications including advice and submissions to senior officials and Ministers. You may also have to draft clear letters and other correspondence setting out the legal position in the context of the circumstances in each case to stakeholders and the public.

You'll have

You will be required to provide evidence of the following essential criteria:

The successful role-holder will have:

- A current, and regularly refreshed, working knowledge and understanding of both the GDPR and DPA 2018 and must be able to recognise, and advise upon, the potential impacts of such on MoJ's existing and emerging technology systems / projects,
- A proven track record in developing and leading information assurance strategy in government, including stakeholder engagement, specifically in relation to risk,
- Proven leadership experience in an information / data management setting,
- Experience and knowledge of existing working practices within government, including technical security advice, risk management, off-shoring, data protection impact assessment, governance and compliance,
- Proven ability to adapt to changing priorities, and maintain focus and alignment of the team's activities,
- Experience of engaging with stakeholders and staff to resolve business issues and ensure effective and efficient delivery of services,
- In a comparable business environment, experience of providing evidence based, risk balanced advice to seniors, presenting complex considerations in clear and non-technical terms.

In the Civil Service, we use Success Profiles, a flexible framework, to assess candidates against a range of elements using a variety of selection methods, therefore giving you the opportunity to demonstrate the various elements required to be successful in the role.

At the interview we will be assessing your technical/specialist skills and experience, testing your ability through relevant assessments and asking you questions to around the behaviours we require to be successful in this role. The behaviours we assess are:

- Leadership
- Communicating and influencing
- Working together
- Developing self and others
- Making effective decisions
- Delivering at pace
- Seeing the big picture
- Changing and improving
- Managing a quality service

Throughout the process we will assess your technical specialist skills and experience on the above requirements.

We are an equal opportunity employer and value diversity at our company. We do not discriminate on the basis of race, religion, colour, national origin, gender, sexual orientation, age, marital status or disability status.

Selection process details

Candidates must submit:

- a current and relevant CV;
- a Cover letter (1 page max) setting out why you are interested in the role and how you meet the essential skills and experience required.

The job advert lists the essential, specialist skills and experience.

At the CV review/sift stage we will use the technical/specialist skills and experience to determine your suitability for the role. At the interview we ask you questions based on the specialist/technical skills and experience as well as behaviours outlined.

At the Interview we will ask open-ended questions to which they are seeking answers/evidence of essential, previous skills, experience and behaviours in order to guide their hiring decision.

Note: due to the volume of applications we receive we are unable to provide feedback after the CV review (sift) stage.

Salary and working arrangements

If successful, the salary we offer you will be within the advertised range and will depend on the skills and experience you demonstrate at the interview. Therefore in your cover letter it would be helpful to the hiring teams if you can indicate your salary expectations and if possible your notice period.

Benefits:

- Flexible working options - working from home or remotely, working part-time, job sharing, or working compressed hours, we have people doing it and are happy to discuss further
- Lots of training and development opportunities
- A civil service pension with an average employer contribution of 22%

Further information

All Civil Servants will adhere to the 'Civil Service code', which outlines the Civil Service's core values, and the standards of behaviour expected of all civil servants in upholding these values.

Note for current Civil Servants: If successful, the salary offered would normally be determined by applying the MoJ salary progression rules. If the appointment is on level transfer your substantive salary (excluding any allowances) will remain unchanged, unless it exceeds the maximum stated within the MoJ pay band, and unless your current salary is below the relevant MoJ grade minimum. If the appointment is on temporary or substantive promotion the salary will be increased by the appropriate promotion percentage or moved to the minimum of the relevant MoJ grade minimum, whichever is the greater.

Note for non Civil servant applicants: This post is open to UK Nationals, Commonwealth Citizens, EEA Nationals of other member states and certain non-EEA family members. There must be no employment restrictions or time limit on your permitted stay in the UK. You should normally have been resident in the United Kingdom for at least 3 years and in some cases 5 or even 10 years preceding your application due to the requirement to have a checkable history for security vetting purposes. If you answer 'No' to the questions regarding nationality then it is unlikely your application will be pursued. If you are unsure as to your eligibility on any of these points, please contact the recruitment team for clarification or advice.
