

PART TIME PSYCHOTHERAPISTS IN AN ADULT MEN'S PRISON

An exciting opportunity has arisen for two qualified psychotherapists to be part of a multi-disciplinary team working with offenders in a therapeutic prison.

Each prison wing is a separate Therapeutic Community and the therapy offered includes small groups as well as the "Living Learning Experience" of the community itself and specialist creative therapies such as art therapy and psychodrama. This is an opportunity to make a huge positive impact on someone's life. The men at HMP Grendon have all applied to do therapy to help them understand why they committed their crimes and how they can make positive changes to their lives.

The vacancies are for clinicians who are eligible for registration or accreditation with a relevant body. (As a Psychotherapist or Counsellor you will either be registered with UKCP or BPC or be an accredited member of BACP. Alternatively you may be an Arts Therapist or practitioner Psychologist registered with the HCPC).

It is a senior role and involves providing clinical supervision to group facilitators as well as facilitating groups and writing reports for prisoners.

There are opportunities for further training and career development and training in clinical supervision will be provided. The role is part time (22.5 hours per week) on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays.

Salary is at Band 7 (HMPPS banding) ranging from £38,148-£43,870 (pro-rata for the part time hours)
